Note: New Jersey Law requires that the applicant present satisfactory proof to the Board of Adjustment at the time of the hearing that notices of the hearing have been duly served. Failure to duly serve all required notices, and failure to fully and correctly complete the above Affidavit, will result in the dismissal of the application.

Whereas service of notice is by certified or registered mail, the applicant must submit to the Board of Adjustment the original mailing receipts and return receipts for all notices so served.

The applicant is advised to carefully read, and comply with, the statutory requirements regarding service of notice of hearing. These requirements are set forth in the instructions accompanying the Board of Adjustment forms of applications.
